In response to these violations, Howard was verbally reprimanded and referred for intensive outpatient substance abuse treatment.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation: It is respectfully recommended that the Court issue a summons and conduct a noncompliance hearing to address Howard's continued noncompliance with the terms of supervised release. It is the position of the probation office that Howard's noncompliant behavior, particularly his numerous instances of Misuse of 911, are a result of his alcohol abuse and occur while he is under the influence of alcohol. Howard has been directed to enter an inpatient substance abuse treatment program. It is the belief of the probation office that a noncompliance hearing before the Court will further reinforce the seriousness of Howard's behavior and help him understand the potential consequences should he continue to disregard the terms of supervision.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
